Scope and Content

This collection consists of books of early American recipes and receipts as well as books related to gardening and herbs from the 19th and 20th centuries. Some of the books were created as early as 1824 with recipes and receipts dating back as early as the 1700s, but the majority of the books were created in the early to mid 1900s. A good portion of the books were published in the late 20th and early 21st centuries.

Arrangement Note

The books have been separated into four categories: cookbooks, garden/herb books, oversized books, and books located in the Hearth Kitchen. All the books are arranged in alphabetical order within their category. This collection has been entered by individual book into the PastPerfect database. Corresponding accession numbers are listed on the books.
