Pre-orders Now Open for the Montclair History Center's Annual Herb & Heirloom Tomato Sale
*Submit pre-order by April 10 or shop the sale May 4-7!

Montclair, NJ – The Montclair History Center's Annual Herb & Heirloom Tomato Sale is a tradition that dates back more than 45 years and for many is a sure sign that spring is finally here. You can find unique, organic herbs, many of which you won't find in your local garden center. You can also pick from a wide selection of delicious organic heirloom tomato varieties for your garden. The sale takes place behind the Crane House and Historic YWCA, 110 Orange Road, Montclair, NJ. The sale takes place on Thursday, May 4th from 9 am to 8 pm; Friday, May 5th from 9 am to 5 pm; Saturday, May 6th from 9 am to 3 pm; and Sunday May 7th 9 am to 1 pm (or until we sell out). This is the Montclair History Center's biggest fundraiser of the year, and we appreciate your support.

Shoppers may also pre-order their herbs and heirloom tomatoes. Pre-ordering your favorite plants means we put them aside for you before the sale opens to the public! Pre-orders are being accepted online through April 10th here: www.montclairhistory.org/herb-sale-2023.

About the Montclair History Center: The Montclair History Center, formerly the Montclair Historical Society, is an independent not-for-profit organization that was founded in 1964 and is dedicated to preserving and sharing Montclair's diverse history.
